

Daniel Van Kampen Joins Millier Dickinson Blais

13 Nov 2009

Millier Dickinson Blais is pleased to welcome Daniel Van Kampen as the newest member of our team. Daniel has joined our Toronto office as a Consultant, bringing with him a wealth of experience in the economic development field, particularly in business park development, and economic development program implementation and management. Daniel began his career in economic development as an economic researcher in the Town of Ajax's economic development department. He went on to serve as an economic development officer with the Municipality of Brockton in Walkerton. Prior to joining Millier Dickinson Blais, Daniel served as a project manager/planner with Malone Given Parsons Ltd. in Markham. As well as his extensive practical experience, Daniel has a Bachelor of Environmental Studies in Geography and a Master of Applied Environmental Studies in Local Economic Development from the University of Waterloo. For more information on Daniel, or the rest of the Millier Dickinson Blais team, click here.